There are two types of materials for clear tops:

PVC fiber cloth and glass curtain wall, both of which can be selected for full coverage or half coverage. The glass curtain wall's high light transmission rate, matched with the exquisite interior, resembles a crystal castle. A clear top tent frame can choose between white and black, white is pure and elegant, black is cool and charming, and it's two very different styles. This type of tent requires both frame and roof decoration to be considered to create a stunning effect for your outdoor event.

Are Aluminium Party Tents Expensive To Hire?

Aluminium tents are often found at beautifully decorated, high-class social events. Booking and buying an aluminium tent couldn't be easier. However, it is expensive to build. Moreover, it needs to be inspected and maintained every once in a while. So, you can choose to hire it. Have it and use it only for a certain period of time and take it down when you don't need it, leaving the area for more useful things. Aluminium tents are usually hired on a "one-month" basis. The total cost is based on the size and period of erection. This is a flexible and inexpensive way of calculating the cost, making it ideal for wedding planning, event planning and outdoor planning companies. For family hires, there are more flexible billing options.

How to decorate a clear tent?

Whether it is black, or white, or colorful tables, chairs, and chandeliers, you can always decorate with them. It's amazing. The decoration of a transparent roof tent does not depend on the interior but on the exterior. The interior design is based on the atmosphere of the event and the outdoor environment.
