Winter sports tent facilities:

In the promotion of national sports today, winter, this cold season can not stop the small partners who love sports. Exercise is already their living habits, is a sign of health, the daily clock indicator is indispensable. However, the cold weather conditions in some areas limit their daily exercise, and sports tents can be a good solution to these problems. The tent is a convenient disassembly of props, in the hot summer, can be used as a shade, the interior can be installed air conditioning, increase the ventilation system, the use of good breathable tarpaulin. In the cold winter can use insulation cotton tarpaulin, block the external cold air, the interior can be installed warm air system, and even can install bathroom system.

Making the tent more like a fully equipped gym. Many customers have begun to try this new type of sports tent is a gym.

How to transform an outdoor basketball court into an indoor basketball arena?

The society vigorously advocates national sports, and many operators have put their eyes on basketball training in this industry.

The construction of traditional basketball stadium approval is difficult, high construction cost a series of problems. Operators to transform the outdoor basketball stadium they will choose the basketball stadium canopy, which can greatly save costs.

The construction of the basketball tent is not affected by the field, we can build our basketball tent anywhere, and the basketball tent can be designed according to the size of the original field. The span of the basketball tent can be from 3 meters to 50 meters, there is no column inside, and the length can be extended indefinitely. The side height can be 4 meters, 5 meters, 6 meters, 7 meters, 10 meters, etc.

These are the requirements of the root customer to customize. The interior of the basketball tent can be configured with lighting system, drainage system, front desk, rest area, office area, etc. can fully reach the level of normal gymnasium.

The shape of the basketball tent is diverse, such as chevron, arc, peach shape, etc., often a tent provides basketball tent with short construction time, low cost, unlimited venue, rapid disassembly, repeated use, all-weather operation.
