Tent for different activities :1. Music Festival activities

For the music festival, enough performance space is the most important thing, to be able to accommodate the stage, equipment, the audience, this situation requires a large net span of space, large herringhead canopy room is currently the choice of more people. Such as security checks, service stations, these tent function requirements are not high, only need more spacious sunshade and rain environment can use a simple configuration of the herringbone canopy room. Some activity booths have the option of a spire activity canopy.

2. Food festival activities

Food festival and auto show is different, food festival activities need to be suitable for a booth independent space, then we should choose like 3*3m, 5*5m peak canopy room, so as to meet the large number of outdoor stalls for food festival demand. Moreover, multiple pointed canopies can be put together, and it is easy to create a whole row of food festival stalls. Of course, there is another scheme to choose, 3 meters or 5 meters span of the miter canopy room, the length can be determined according to actual needs, so that it can also create a shade and rain booth area.

3. Auto Show activities

If it's a big auto show, we need thousands of square meters of exhibition space. Discuss the choice of large specifications of the herringette canopy, this large-scale activity canopy can fully meet the needs of large auto show. If you go to the exhibition tent room supporting more comparable to some exhibition venues. Some of the remaining ticketing, service and other supporting awnings can use small specifications of herringbones awnings.
