Product Description

Can Be Customized Marquee Tent Outdoor White Beautiful Wedding Arcum Tent For Sale

Product Specification:

Arcum Tent's modular structure, whose length can be increased and decreased by 5m bay. High reinforced aluminum alloy (6061/T6) is used for the frame of the arcum tent, and fire retardant double-side PVC synthetic fabric is adapted for roof covers, which conform to European DIN4102 B1, M2 standard.

A variety of optional accessories are available for arcum tent, which can reinforce its application and function such as clear PVC window sidewalls, ground anchors, weight plates, decoration roof linings and side curtains, glass doors, ABS hard walls, clear roof covers and sidewalls, flooring system, rain gutters and so on.

Arcum Tent is a unique tent type, it is based on the design of "A" frame tents and reasonably absorbs Chinese traditional architectural design elements. Roof beams are bent so that it becomes the curve shape. Arcum Tent is quite sturdy and durable, wind resistance capacity can 100 miles/hour(0.5kn/sqm), and it's easily assembled, dismantled and portable.
Nice outline appearance, graceful Arc roof, spacious interior space, especially verandah is added that makes the arcum tent more suitable for large scale exhibitions and events.
