FAQ:

What is an event marquee?

A marquee is a large tent typically used for outdoor events, providing shelter from the elements while allowing for open-air gatherings.

What sizes of marquees are available?

Marquees come in various sizes to accommodate different events, ranging from small ones suitable for intimate gatherings to large ones for events hosting hundreds or even thousands of people.

What are the different types of event marquees?

There are several types of event marquees, including traditional pole marquees, frame marquees, stretch tents, and inflatable marquees. Each type has its own advantages and is suitable for different types of events and environments.

How do I choose the right marquee for my event?

Consider factors such as the size of your event, the number of guests, the location, weather conditions, and your budget when choosing a marquee. Consulting with a professional marquee provider can also help you make the right decision.

Do I need a permit to set up a marquee?

Regulations regarding the setup of marquees vary depending on your location and the size of the marquee. In many cases, you may need to obtain permits or permissions from local authorities before setting up a marquee, especially for larger events.

Can I decorate the marquee?

Yes, marquees can be decorated to suit the theme or style of your event. Many marquee providers offer additional services such as lighting, flooring, draping, and furniture hire to help you create the desired atmosphere.
