The dome design gives the tent a unique aesthetic value, and the round and smooth lines make it appear particularly harmonious in the natural environment. Whether it is in the mountains, lakes or seaside, it can become a beautiful landscape. Looking from a distance, it is like a mysterious planet coming to the earth, attracting the eyes of tourists. Large areas of transparent Windows or domes allow plenty of natural light to enter the interior of the tent, creating a bright and welcoming atmosphere. Tourism dome leisure tent construction is relatively simple and quick, can adapt to different terrain and site conditions.
